- ◆ Online Events help you to enhance teamwork, team spirit and for this reason employee cooperation. Furthermore, they bring that unforgettable extra to your actual everyday work life.
- ◆ Hybrid Events incorporate the world around the screen. The participants will receive a postal package in advance and make use of all their senses during the event.

Online Team Escape

The crazy professor has locked you and your colleagues in his lab. And if this wasn't enough, he also put one of his dangerous unstable experiments in there, that will explode if you don't escape within an hour. He's definitely bonkers and out of his mind, but he probably has a good heart. Anyways, get out of there! Quick!

With teamwork, the participants will solve the riddles and leave with the positive feeling of having accomplished something together.

Maximum 10 teams of 6 participants

Duration: about 1 hour

Tailormade Escape

A murder in the historic castle?
Smoke coming from a mysterious cellar in Vienna? You woke up in a mountain hut in the middle of nowhere?

An unconscious skier in the middle of an alpine city?

Whatever place or story, we will cater to your escape game needs. With actors and our host, we will film special scenes that will be released task after task.

With all the collected evidence, the teams will hopefully solve the mysterious cases around Europe.

Teams of 6 to 8 participants

Duration: about 1 hour

Zoom Challenge

This zoom challenge requires team spirit par excellence.

First, the participants will have to find their roles in the team. As soon as they did that, different tasks will have to be finished. These tasks can be tailored for the company.

In the end, every team should have a pdf file with pictures and unforgettable memories. The pictures will be shown to the other teams for laughs and to determine the winning team.

Teams of 8 to 10 participants

Pub Quiz

During the online pub quiz that includes the fast fact round, a music challenge, video questions and cute animal pics, the participants will work as individuals and teams to bring home the trophy!

The pub quiz can be individually tailored to your event. It promises fun, thrills and a lot of reawakened grey brain matter.

Maybe some creative thinking might be required too, but we'll see about that later. It's quiz time!
